

PROJECT REPORT

JMU Gifford Hall

CLIENT:	James Madison University
LOCATION:	Harrisonburg, Virginia
ARCHITECT:	VMDO Architects
CONTRACT:	$4.1 million
COMPLETED:	August 2002

Special Features: This project included replacing the floor and ceiling, and completely redoing the heating, ventilating, and air conditioning systems. The project encompassed 46,000 square feet on four floors. The building was upgraded to be handicapped accessible. The roof was reworked, and new cabinets were installed. Gifford Hall originally opened in 1958. The residence hall was named for Dr. Walter J. Gifford, former dean and head of the education department.
